

Planning for and By the People

A National Conference on Community Engagement in the Community Planning Process

Proposed Program

Monday, December 4

TIME	EVENT
8.00am	Registration and coffee
9.00am	Welcome and overview of conference
9.15am	Keynote presentation – 'The Bottom Up Planning Story of the City of Seattle' – Jim Diers , Former Director, Department of Neighborhoods, City of Seattle, USA
10.30am	Coffee Break
11.00am	Keynote presentation – 'Innovation in Australian Community Planning Processes' – Associate Professor Janette Hartz-Karp , Murdoch University and Advisor to WA Government on Community Planning Processes
12.15pm	Lunch Break
1.30pm	Workshop 1 - Options
	1. Choosing Deliberative Participatory Techniques that Work - Part 1
	2. The Business Retention and Expansion Program- a tool for local residents to engage their business community
	3. The Faith Factor in Building Communities
	4. Creating a Vision for Engaging Young People in your Community
	5. Engaging the Public in Community Dialogue
	6. Community Building on the Central Coast, NSW – a successful regional approach to asset based community development
	7. New Creativity in Engaging Young People's Interest in Community Issues and Civic Action
	8. Now We Have a Community Plan, What Next ?
	9. Building Community From the Inside Out and Ensuring Inclusiveness and the Contribution of People with a Disability
	10. Building Engagement through the Stories and Heritage of Our Community
3.00pm	Coffee Break
3.30pm	Workshop 2 - Options
	1. Choosing Deliberative Participatory Techniques that Work - Part 2
	2. Finding and Engaging Community Assets
	3. The Business Retention and Expansion Program- a tool for local residents to engage their business community
	4. The Faith Factor in Building Communities
	5. Creating a Vision for Engaging Young People in your Community
	6. Community Building on the Central Coast, NSW – a successful regional approach to asset based community development
	7. The Bottom Up Planning Story of the City of Seattle
	8. Now We Have a Community Plan, What Next ?
	9. Logic, Engagement and Action – a great story from the Indigo Shire
	10. Building Engagement through the Stories and Heritage of Our Community
5.00pm	Close of Workshops
7.00pm	Drinks
7.30pm	Conference Dinner featuring Tim Costello (CEO, World Vision) 'Building Social Capital in Today's Suburbs'

Planning for and By the People

A National Conference on Community Engagement in the Community Planning Process

Proposed Program

Tuesday, December 5

TIME	EVENT
8.00am	Coffee
9.15am	Keynote presentation – 'Building Strong Communities From the Inside Out – Asset Based Community Development' – Professor Jody Kretzmann , ABCD Institute
10.15am	Coffee Break
10.45am	Keynote presentation – 'Innovative Ways to Engage Residents in the Issues that Matter to Them' – Betty Knighton , Director, West Virginia Center for Civic Life (USA)
12.00pm	Lunch Break
1.00pm	Workshop 3 - Options
	1. The Faith Factor in Building Communities
	2. Creating a Vision for Engaging Young People in your Community
	3. Community Building on the Central Coast, NSW – a successful regional approach to asset based community development
	4. The Art of Public Safety, Economic Development, Youth Empowerment and Community Building
	5. New Creativity in Engaging Young People's Interest in Community Issues and Civic Action
	6. Now We Have a Community Plan, What Next ?
	7. Building Community From the Inside Out and Ensuring Inclusiveness and the Contribution of People with a Disability
	8. Logic, Engagement and Action – a great story from the Indigo Shire
	9. Building Engagement through the Stories and Heritage of Our Community
	10. Appreciative Inquiry- application to Australian Communities
2.15pm	Coffee Break
2.45pm	Workshop 4 - Options
	1. Finding and Engaging Community Assets
	2. Creating a Vision for Engaging Young People in your Community
	3. Engaging the Public in Community Dialogue
	4. Community Building on the Central Coast, NSW – a successful regional approach to asset based community development
	5. The Art of Public Safety, Economic Development, Youth Empowerment and Community Building
	6. New Creativity in Engaging Young People's Interest in Community Issues and Civic Action
	7. Now We Have a Community Plan, What Next?
	8. Building Community From the Inside Out and Ensuring Inclusiveness and the Contribution of People with a Disability
	9. Logic, Engagement and Action – a great story from the Indigo Shire
	10. Building Engagement through the Stories and Heritage of Our Community
4.00pm	'Building Strong Communities – the challenge and opportunities for all levels of Government' – Dick Gross , MAV President
4.30pm	Conference Summary - Mary Nelson
5.00pm	Conference Closure